PERRY CASHIER ALEX. NATIONAL

Directors Elect Well-Known Alexandrian to New Position.

STOCKHOLDERS MEET.

First And Citizens' National Re-elect Old Board of Directors—Change at Alexandria National.

The three National Banks of Alexandria, the First National, the Citizens' National and the Alexandria National, held their annual meetings of stockholders today and all of the old directors were re-elected by the first two named. At the Alexandria National there were two changes in the Board, Captain Guy T. Scott and John Mitchell, Jr., being added to the board and J. Lawrence Perry being chosen as cashier.

James Trimble was chosen cashier of the Alexandra National Bank, but whilst he will still be connected with the bank, he found that his business elsewhere was such that he could not give his whole time to the discharge of the duties of cashier, and therefore Mr. Perry was chosen as cashier.

Mr. Perry has been associated with the Alexandria National Bank since its organizaton as teller, and for several years has been assistant cashier. He is a native of Alexandria and has always lived in this city and vicinity. He is a young man and is universally popular and is a fine business man.

Senator Scott, president of the Continental Trust Company, of Washington, D. C., was chosen as a director and vice-president of the Alexandria National Bank. Senator Scott was formerly U. S. Senator from West Virginia for twelve years, and is a man of very large wealth, and has built up the largest bank of West Virginia, of which he is now vice-president. Senator Scott is largely interested in the Alexandria National Bank, but the control of the bank is in the hands of local men, and will so continue. His only son, Captain Guy T. Scott, retired army officer, now vice president of the Continental Trust Company, of Washington, D. C., and active in its management, was elected a director.

Both Senator Scott and Captain Scott will take an active part in the management of the bank.

Another new director, is Mr. John Mitchell, Jr., president of the John Mitchell Hardware Company, of Washington, D. C. He is a man of wealth and of the highest character.

The complete list of directors of the Alexandria National elected by the stockholders today is as follows:

C. E. Nicol, W. B. Smoot, T. C. Smith, James M. Duncan, W. E. Bain, Howard W. Smith, E. L. Cockrell, O. G. Staples, Nathan B. Scott, Guy T. Scott, John Mitchell, Jr.

The following are the officers elected by the directors: C. E. Nicol, president; W. B. Smoot, vice-president; T. C. Smith, vice-president; Nathan B. Scott, vice-president; J. L. Perry, cashier.

The Frst National elected the following directors: B. Baer, Jr., Gardner L. Boothe, M. B. Harlow, J. F. Muir, Walter Roberts, Douglass Stuart, and George E. Warfield. Following the meeting the stockholders were entertained at luncheon by George E. Warfield at Lee Camp Hall. The board of directors will meet tomorrow to elect officers.

The Citizens'National Bank elected the following directors: Edward L. Daingerfield, J. Clinton Smoot, Worth Hulfish, M. A. Ahern, James W. Roberts, Carroll Pierce, and Urban S. Lambert. The directors will meet on Thursday to elect officers. The stockholders approved the action of the board of directors in making an application to become a member of the Federal Reserve Association.

MASONIC NOTICE.

A special communication of Alexandria-Washington Lodge No. 22, A. F., and A. M., will be held Tuesday night, January 13th, at 7:30 o'clock for work.

By order of the worshipful master.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Francis Bowes Sayre and his wife, formerly Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson, were the guests of honor yesterday at a luncheon given by Ambassador and Mrs. Myron T. Herrick, in Paris. Mrs. Anna Wilson Howe, of Philadelphia, a sister of the President, was among the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Sayre, according to their present plans, will sail for New York tomorrow on board the Majestic from Cherbourg. Mr. and Mrs. Sayre passed their time in Paris quietly, visiting most of the places of interest to foreigners.

The record-breaking cold spell of two weeks ago is outdone by the intensity of the cold wave that now grips Central Europe. Not for 25 years has there been so much distress and loss of life due to cold weather. Peasants devoured by wolves in Eastern Russia will number scores. More than 150 deaths from cold were reported officially yesterday at St. Petersburg, which is snowbound. Besides great damage to rails and wires, serious flood dangers have arisen in the Rhine Valley and other parts of Belgium, Germany, and Switzerland.

The Page legislative rider to the District of Columbia appropriation bill was adopted by the House yesterday, rendering inoperative, so far as the House is concerned, the half and half provision of the District act of June, 1878. A few minutes later the District bill passed the House by a perfunctory vote of 236 to 36. The page rder requires the turning back into the Treasury of the United States of about $1,400,000 raised by taxation in the District, and which the House has decided the District should not be permitted either to spend, to store up against future demands, or to return, pro rata, to the various taxpayers from whom it was collected.

Pope Pius X yesterday rejected the appeal of the Duchess d. Tallyrand, formerly Anna Gould, of New York, from the verdict of the Rota Tribunal, which annulled her marriage to her first husband, Count Boni de Castellan. The Pope's action was taken at the suggestion of the Segnatura, the high court of the Vatican, and was based on the ground that the duchess still has another chance to defend herself before the lower court As a result the case will again be heard before the Rota Tribunal becomes final.

The Sakura-Jima volcano, in southern Japan, is in violent eruption. Several villages are reported to have been buried under lava. Refugees who arrived at Kogoshima, capital of the province of Satsuma, yesterday, declared that hundreds had been buried alive or suffocated by the volcano's fumes.

The next important pronouncement banning the tango and other such rances is expected to come from the Holy See of the Roman Catholic Church, according to a Rome telegram to the London Evening Standard. A number of high prelates already have forbidden the dances in question.

TWO CRIMES KILL ELEVEN.

Murders And Suicides Take Seven in One Family, Four in Other.

Berlin, Jan. 13.—Two crimes of violence involving the death of 11 people were committed Sunday in Soldau, province of East Prussia, and Hamburg.

At Soldau an entire family consisting of a man and wife, with their five children, were found in their house yesterday with their throats cut and the gas turned on. A dog with its head almost severed was lying beside them. Pecuniary difficulties are supposed to have driven the parents to kill the children and then commit suicide.

At Hamburg Sunday a policeman killed his three daughters and then himself, after a family quarrel.

Stockholder's Meeting.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Alexandria Building & Loan Association will be held in the office of the Company, Alexandria National Bank Building, on Tuesday, January 13, 1914, at 8 o'clock.

HOLD EMPLOYERS LIABLE FOR INJURY

Workmen's Compensation Bill Prepared by Insurance Comissioner.

ABOLISH LAW SUITS.

Employees to Receive Guaranteed Financial Return for Injuries Received While at Work.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 13.—A workman's compensation law, designed to guarantee a laborer monetary return for injury received while in performance of his duty, has been drawn by Joseph Button, State Commissioner of Insurance, and will be introduced in the coming session of the General Assembly. It is one step beyond the employers' liability law, and is modeled after the Michigan Workman's compensation law of 1912. It proposes to abolish, on the part of the employer, the common law defense of contributory negligence, assumption of risk and injury by a fellow-servant in their place to establish an absolute liability in all cases except where the injury results from the wilfull negligence of the workman.

The measure provides that no compensation shall be paid unless the workman is incapacitated for two weeks. During the first three weeks after the injury the employer must furnish medical aid and medicines. During the period of physical disability resulting from injury the employer will be required to pay the workman a weekly compensation of not less than $4 and not more than $10, the amount to be governed by the extent of the injury. In no case, however, is the compensation to be paid for more than 300 weeks. Should the injury cause death the compensation must be paid for 300 weeks to the dependents of the workman.

The amount of compensation to be paid, the administration of the sliding scale of fees and the strict application of the law is left in the hands of an industrial accident board. This board will be composed of the Commissioner of Insurance, the Commissioner of Labor, and the Secretary of the Commonwealth. The feature of the proposed bill is the economy of administration. According to the statement given out yesterday by Colonel Button, all three of the men now occupying these offices in Virginia have agreed to serve upon the board without pay. The cost to the State for administering the law will be almost nothing.

In cases of injury where there is dispute in regard to the compensation to be paid, the board has the authority to supervise the arbitration of the difficulties. The decision of the arbiters can be reviewed by the State Supreme Court. The bill covers nineteen typewritten pages, and is designed to meet every emergency that has arisen under the administration of the law in Michigan and other states.

DISTRESS IN THE BALKANS.

Thousands of People Are Freezing And Starving to Death in Fields.

London, Jan. 13.—Further reports have reached London from relief agants of the Balkans, detailing the appalling distress among the starving refugees and the urgent need for immediate financia l assistance. The Sofia, representatives of the Balkan war relief committee writes:

"There are now about 1,200 refugees in Bulgaria coming from Thace, and Macedonia. Of these 8,000 mainly from Koukousch, are now in Sofia, and about 35,000 in Borgas. The condition of the latter is especially pitiable.

"An urgent telegram has just been received frm Albania, saying 10,000 Bulgarian refugees have reached Durazdo. The residents of that place are unable to feed and house them and urge that Bulgarian steamers be sent to bring them to this country. In Sofia, Varna and other towns, the government is housing the refugees in schools.

AT WASHINGTON THEATRES.

"Maria Rosa" Notable Production at the Belasco.

The first metropolitan production of the English version of Angel Guimera's "Maria Rosa," given last evening in the Belasco Theater, is the most notable of the present season, marking Miss Dorothy Donnelly's advent as a star; Lou-Tellegen's first appearance in English, as well as the second play from the pen of the Spanish litterateur to have been produced in English.

One day the Spanish poet and playwright heard from one of his guides the recital of a tragedy of the Catalonia Mountain peasants, a tale of love and hate, and revenge of such dramatic intensity that straightway he wove the fiber of the lives involved into a play with a vividness and faithfulness which leaves the auditor entirely creudulous.

"Maria Ross" is the young wife of a grape presser of the mountains of Catalonia. While very poor they are happy until, through the treachery of Ramon, a fellow-worker and professed friend, Andres, the husband, is accused of a murder which he did not commit, and is sent to prison where he dies. News of his death brings joy to the heart of Ramon, who proceeds to woo Maria Rosa, whom he has always loved with primeval intensity. Then follows the fight on the girl between the whisperings of her mental and spiritual self against the man who would win her, and his physical attractiveness which calls to her heart. Through a further strategy and deception Ramon wins his purpose, and we come to the wedding supper when the bridegroom drinks too much wine and becoming more garrulous than is good for him. He boasts of his nerve and brave deeds to his wedding guests, awakening, through his subtle insinuations, all the old spiritual struggle against him in the girl. Maria Rosa sends them all away, and when she is alone with Ramon extracts from him the whole pitiful story of his treachery to Andres, with a tragic climax.

The English translation of the Guimera tragedy has been made by Wallace Gillpatrick, and Guido Marburg without the loss of any of its classic beauty or its poetic spirit. The setting further enhances these quaities, making the play at the Belasco this week one which can be missed only with an after regret.

"The Land of Impossible."

Dave Marion and his own company in his latest musical play, "The Land of Impossible," is the attraction at the Gayety this week. Two capacity houses greeted him at the opening performances yesterday and, if applause can be taken as a criterion, Dave has lost none of his old-time popularity. Without Snuffy, the irate Irish cabman, the show would be impossible. He is responsible for all of the fun and the song hit of the past time.

The members of the supporting company have such inferior parts that they are given little opportunity to prove their worth. Inez de Verdier, Clara Saule, Mable Manning, and Zea Valencia were warmly applauded for their efforts.

The stage setting in the second act is elaborate, and the scenic effects equal to the "big scenes" of some of the popular spectacular productions that have been here this year. The chorus is unusually large and attractive, and displays to good advantage costumes of former ages.

LEGISLATURE TO MEET TOMORROW

House of Delegates Will Make Edwin P. Cox Speaker Tonight.

HARMONY IS URGED.

White And Stubbs Retire in Favor of Richmond Member—Appropriation Bill Almost in Shape.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 13.—Edwin P. Cox, of Richmond, will be named as speaker of the House of delegates at a Democratic caucus of that body tonight. Hugh A. White, of Rockbridge, withdrew from the race early yesterday, finding that Mr. Cox already had a majority of the votes pledged. Major J. N. Stubbs, of Gloucester, announced his withdrawal last night in an appeal to the party to get together for constructive legislation. No announcement has come from C. J. Meetze, of Prince William, county, whose name may go before the caucus.

Mr. Cox succeeds Richard Evelyn Byrd, of Frederick county, who did not offer for re-election from the Winchester district. Although still a young man, he is the dean of the Richmond delegation. He is a lawyer by profession, is a former grand commander of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, was born in Richmond in 1870, and is the grandson of the late Judge James H. Cox, of Chesterfield.

The almost unanimous choice of Mr. Cox is said to have no political significance, as he had among his supporters men identified with every faction in politics. Personally he is opposed to state-wide prohibition, and he has always been affiliated with the party organization.

Both senate and house will hold their preliminary meetings tonight, with the speakership fight out of the way, the house caucus promises to be almost as tame as that of the senate. Senate officers were elected last session for four-year terms, and hold over. Clerk Marshall Booker has resigned, and the senate will confirm the ad interim appointment of O. V. Hanger as clerk. Edward Echols, Senator from the Staunton district, and president pro tem, will preside.

The following are the important bills to be presented in the general assembly:

Appropriation bill.
Enabling Act.
Tax reform bill.
The primary law.
The fee system.
Reform of the election laws.
Amendments to the constitution providing for changes in the form of municipal government.
Election of members of the State corporation commission by the people.
Redistricting the House and Senate districts.
Election of circuit, corporation and other court judges.
Election of a judge of the Supreme Court.

HANNAH WASHINGTON'S WILL.

Resident of New London, Conn., Willing to Return it.

Washington, Jan. 13.—One result of the agitation in Virginia to recover the will of Martha Washington, said to have been stolen from the Fairfax Courthouse and now in the private collection of J. Pierpont Morgan, has been the discovery of the will of Hannah Washington.

State Senator Thornton, leading an effort to have the Virginia Legislature proceed against Mr. Morgan to recover the Martha Washington will, has received a letter from Edward C. Eggleston, of New London, Conn., saying he has Hannah Washington's will, and is willing to return it.

Eggleston wrote Senator Thornton that a friend bought the will from a soldier who stole it from the Fairfax Courthouse in 1861 or 1862, about the same time Martha Washington's will disappeared.

IN GRIP OF COLD WAVE.

Large Part of Country Experiences Low Temperatures for First Time This Winter.

Washington, Jan. 13.—The first winter weather of the new year and the first real cold snap of the present winter spread generally over the country yesterday.

The cold wave was central yesterday morning over extreme Western Minnesota and advancing eastward. Very low temperatures prevailed everywhere east of the Rocky Mountains, except in the Northeast. A reading of 30 degrees below zero was recorded at White river, Canada, while Duluth reported 19 degrees below, with even lower temperature on the ranges.

In Chicago the mercury was slightly above early in the evening, with prospects of going much lower. Advertising signs and windows were wrecked by the wind. Hundreds of homeless who had not even the requisite nickel or dime to enter the cheap lodging houses were sheltered at police stations.

The cold was made all the more severe by a gale, which in many places attained a velocity of 60 miles an hour.

In some places like Philadelphia and Cleveland, light snow fell.

In Syracuse and throughout Central and Northern New York blizzard conditions prevailed. The snow fall was the heaviest in years and showed no signs of abatement. The zero temperature caused a rush of the homeless to the police stations and municipal lodging houses.

It is predicted that low temperatures will continue in the Upper Lake Region, the Ohio Valley and in the South, where frost last night was felt as far as Miami, Fla.

Generally fair weather is predicted, but storm warnings are displayed on the Atlantic Coast from Hatteras to Eastport, Maine, and on the Pacific Coast from San Francisco northward.

Harry K. Thaw, who shot and killed Stanford White, in New York, on June 25, 1906, probably will be released on bail by Federal Judge Aldrich in Concord, N. H., this week.

DEATH GRAPPLE IN SOUTH AFRICA

General Paralysis of Labor Liable in Order to Aid Railway Men.

20,000 TROOPS READY.

Capetown in State of Siege—Men Fire on Train And Attempt to Wreck Great Bridge

Cape Town, South Africa Jan. 13.—Quiet prevailed throughout South Africa last night, but this may be the lull before the storm, as the incoming ballots from various centers makes it practically certain that a general strike will be voted. The ballots received from the miners along the Reef all favor a strike and the various trades, including shop assistants, warehouse men and clerks in Johannesburg, have voted similarly.

The feeling is growing in Johannesburg that the situation is becoming more serious. The Cape Town harbor workers have now been officially called out by the union.

A ballot by the Johannesburg branch of the Typographical Union has resulted by a large majority in favor of a strike.

If a general strike is called it will be out of sympathy for the strike of the railway employes,many of whom have abandoned their posts and laid down their tools in the railroad workships. The strike of the railway men is said to be due to the policy of retrenchment put into effect by the South African Railway administration, in pursuance of which hundreds of employes in Pretorm, Bloomfontein, Durban, Salt River and elsewhere have been dismissed. The strikers demand the cessation of this policy of retrenchment and the reinstatement of the dismissed men. They argue that the administration's real motive is to force wages down, as shown by the fact that some of the dismissed men have been offered other billets at reduced wages.

The most hopeful feature of the situation last night was the extraordinary success attending the moblization of troops. It is estimated that there are 20,000 armed men on the Rand, most of whom have come prepared for the same kind of campaign which made the Boers so long the despair of the English generals.

Cape Town bears the appearance of a besieged city. Strike leader Harrison, of the boilermaker's union, in a speech has invited the strikers to blow up everything possible, no matter whether hundreds are killed. Harrison is now under arrest.

Strikers here are firing on trains coming from Belleville and other suburbs.

A desperate attempt was made to wreck with dynamite the great railroad bridge at Fourteen Streams, fifty miles north of Kimberley on the border of the Transvaal. The rails were torn up by the explosion and portions of the approach were damaged, but the bridge itself withstood the shock.

DONT WANT NAZIMOVA.

Lynchburg Organization Seek to Prevent Her Appearance.

Lynchburg, Va., Jan. 13.—A strong effort is being made here to suppress Madame Nazimova, who is billed to appear here Thursday night in "Bella Donna" at the Academy of Music, several organizations having adopted resolutions calling upon the authorities to prevent the production of that piece in Lynchburg.

Mayor Smith has been confined to his home by illness for a week, and it is not known if any action will be taken by the authorities with respect to the protest.

Henry Lane Dunlap, for the last four and one-half years chief of the Washington bureau of New York World, and for the last fourteen years a member of the staff of the World and the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, died at 1:45 o'clock Sunday afternoon. He was a native of Illinois.

FRIGID WAVE ARRIVES

High Northwest Winds and Freezing Weather—Ice Covers Flats

According to the forecast of the Weather Bureau, the mercury in the thermometer took a decided tumble yesterday, and before the close of the day it was down to 17. Early this morning it stood at 7 in exposed places.

Yesterday morning the wind was from the south, but a few hours later it shifted to the northwest, and by noon it had attained great velocity, rendering pedestrianism difficult and sending clouds of dust through the streets. Dead branches were torn from the trees and sent sailing in the air, and loose shingles were wafted from roofs.

There were three alarms of fire in different sections of the city while the gale was at its height, but fortunately the flames were extinguished before they gained dangerous headway.

The wind was blowing fiercely at the close of the day, but early in the night it subsided temporarily, only to resume its violence before midnight. The keen gale continued until daylight this morning.

Considerable ice formed during the night, the flats on both sides of the river being covered.

Only steamboats were able to brave the elements yesterday and last night.

The weather today has been clear and cold, with diminishing winds.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES.

Union Meeting in Methodist Protestant Church—Rev. Dr. Allison Preaches.

The union services were held in the Methodist Protestant Church last night, when Rev. Dr. J. Lee Allison pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, delivered the sermon. His text was from John, "And he brought him to Jesus."

The services will be held tonight in Christ Church, when Rev. Dr. J. W. Duffy, pastor of the M. E. Church South, will preach.

WORKMEN CLING TO CHIMNEY

Herber Knight, Ernest Padgett and the latter's son, bricklayers, had an uncomfortable experience on the roof of the three-story brick store building at 114 north Royal street yesterday morning, when the wind was blowing great guns. The men were repairing a chimney, when the wind got under the roof at the rear and started to roll the tin toward them with alarming speed. They were compelled to take chances by clinging to the chimney and the coping, when the huge roll suddenly stopped within a few feet of them.

MANTLE OF THE FROST KING.

I hear the howl of the wind that brings
The long drear storm on its heavy wings.

These lines during the past twenty-four hours have been brought to many, not only in our own country, but throughout Europe, where unheard of suffering is reported. In some cases in Russia famished wolves are eating peasants, hundreds have perished in snow drifts and starvation is facing thousands. In Albania the number of beggars has been increased alarmingly, and mendicants are menacing towns and villages, in which they have ceased to solicit help, but are helping themselves to anything in sight. Such conditions have not prevailed in Europe during the past quarter of a century.

The polar wave has spread over a large area of the United States, even Florida being in the embrace of the frost king, but while considerable inconvenience is being experienced, it has not brought the horrors which are in evidence in other countries. But there is much around us to direct attention to the battle continually waged against poverty by a large percentage. All are not blessed with warm houses and plentiful larders, and in many places the abodes of the indigent are far from being weather-proof when the fierce gales of mid-winter are upon us.

While hungry wolves are not prowling around human habitations in our country ready to tear human beings to pieces the apparition of the black horse with his rider and balances is often descried around cheerless homes.

Much can be done toward affording temporary relief to such unfortunates and at a minimum cost to those who enjoy superior blessings.

The time is opportune for such thoughtful acts while union meetings are arousing the spiritual lives of many.

MILITANCY IS NOT NEW.

There is nothing new under the sun." To be told that militancy is not new in the United States is a surprise to some and to find that Dr. Anna Shaw's advice to suffragists not to pay the income tax was but repeating what was done in this country more than half a century ago will be a surprise to some.

Years ago the Grimke sisters, South Carolinians, who moved to New England to live because of their abolition sentiments, annually allowed their cows to be sold to satisfy the tax collectors as a protest against their disfranchisement.

In 1858 Lucy Stone, then living in Orange, N. J., refused to pay her taxes, giving as her reason the injustice of taxation without representation. The sheriff sold her personal belongings, including her baby carriage. This happened more than once but finally she was obliged to yield. Susan Anthony never owned any property that was taxable, but her sister Mary constanty refused to pay taxes but in the end always was forced to yield.

Dr Shaw's advice on the subject of taxes is very safe advice so far as she is concerned as she does not own any taxable property, her income being derived from sources that are not taxable under the income tax law. At any rate her advice was the means of getting a good deal of free advertising and of moving the antis to great rejoicing to think that militancy was at last to invade the United States and bring discredit upon the cause.

4,800 WAIFS IN ARMY'S CARE

Refugees From Ojinaga, Mexico, to be Detained at Fort Bliss.

Presidio, Texas. Jan. 13.—Under the care of the United States Army, six generals of the Mexican federal army, 3,300 fugitive soldiers and 1,500 refugees who were driven out of Ojinaga, Mexico, by General Francisco Villa's rebel forces, were put in readiness today for a day's march over the 67 miles of road to Marfa, Tex. The soldiers will be interned at Fort Bliss indefinitely.

At Marfa, the nearest railroad station, the federal army, which sought asylum in the United States after their defeat by the rebels, will be guarded by the border patrol pending their final disposition by the war department. Among the civilians are 1,207 women as officially counted by Major McNamee. The patrol also has in charge 1,000 federal army horses and mules.

Major McNamee sent cavalrymen along the road to select and provision camps at the points where the stops will be made. The food supplies will be issued through the army.

Major McNamee was without definite advice as to where the fugitives would be taken after they reached Marfa, until late yesterday, when orders were received to interne the soldiers at Fort Bliss, and permit the women and children to accompany them.

The whereabouts of Generals Pascaul Orozco and Inez Salazaar, commanders of Federal volunteers, who fled from Ojinaga with 700 cavalrymen, remains unknown to the rebels.

The arrest of Rafeal Flores, Orozco's secretary, on the road between Presidio and Marfa, gave rise to the belief that the General was somewhere on this side of the river. General Mercado, of the federal regulars, is charged with cowardice, and the rebels have sentenced them to execution should they be captured on the Mexican side.

Gen. Villa, who is in Ojinaga, started some of his troops to Chihuahua, and himself expects to leave for that city at once to direct his campaign southward toward Mexico City. Hundreds of rifles and numerous field pieces were found in Ojinaga after the Federal retreat. The field pieces were those which General Mercado wished to bring to American soil because he had no ammunition for them, but which he was forced later to abandon.

General Villa said he would use all the rifles and guns in his future campaign against Huerta forces.

The first federal garrison south of Chihuahua is Torreron, 525 miles from the United States border. The suburbs of Torreron already are held by the rebels and General Villa said he expected little opposition there against his march to Zacatecas, the next city south.

Weak Lungs Often Lead to Serious Illness

If you have weak lungs, you are generally subject to colds or throat trouble and easily susceptible to serious Lung Trouble. In many cases pneumonia or bronchial troubles leave the lungs in a much weakened condition. Eckman's Alterative is a medicine for the throat and lungs which has been found to be very beneficial, even when a change of climate and other treatments failed to bring relief. Read of this case:—

231 S. Atlantic Ave., Haddonfield, N. J. "Gentlemen: In the fall of 1905 I contracted a very severe cold which settled on my lungs. At last I began to raise blood, and my physician then told me I must go to California immediately. At this time I was advised to take Eckman's Alterative. I stayed at home and commenced taking it the last week in October. I began to improve, and the first week in January, 1906, I resumed my regular occupation, having gained 23 pounds, fully restored to health. It is now seven years since my recovery has been effected, and I cannot praise Eckman's Alterative too highly.

(Signed) W. M. TATEM.

(Also abbreviated; more on request.)

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in rebuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of its cures, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists.

KILLED BY WOMAN.

Alleged She Used Knife in Alley in Petersburg.

Petersburg, Va., Jan. 13.—William Wood, a negro, was stabbed and killed Saturday afternoon in the home of Ollie Graves, in Weber's Alley, and Coroner Leigh and a jury, after holding an inquest over the body held Vergie Ford, a negro girl, 18 years old, responsible for the killing.

The girl is under arrest, and in her testimony before the coroner's jury repeated the statement she made to the police immediately after her arrest. This was a denial that she had stabbed Wood, and of any knowledge as to how he was stabbed.

Wood and the girl both had rooms in the Graves house, and she had been cooking for both and had nursed the Graves woman during her illness.

According to her statement, the girl met Wood Saturday afternoon at the Center market and received some meat from him to carry to Ollie Graves. She was late in going to the house and on her way she saw Wood in the alley drunk. When he came in the house he had a knife in his hand and quarreled with her for being so late.

The two men were separated and for a while quiet reigned. But later, the girl states, Wood called her to his room. There the quarrel was renewed and a violent struggle ensued. She was thrown on the bed. In her effort to protect herself and get the knife away from Wood the latter was gashed across the palm of his hand. The girl further declares that when she saw the cut in Wood's hand, she ran to a druggist to get some application for it, and when she returned and found Wood ill, she ran to summon a doctor. Wood was dead when the doctor reached the house. She did not know that he had been stabbed.

ELOPERS STALLED IN SWAMP.

Couple From Suffolk, Va., Finally Married in North Carolina.

Suffolk, Va., Jan. 13.—Clarence Brickell, an electrician, and Miss Hattie Jones, the 17-year-old sister of Mrs. Joseph F. Brantley, of Suffolk, evaded watchful relatives Sunday night, the girl pretending to be on her way to church, and in an automobile started through the country to Gatesville, N. C., 30 miles away.

Half way there the car ran into a swamp and stopped. The chauffeur declined to get out in the icy water and blew the horn for an hour, when a rescue party of negroes arrived and pulled them out. It was 2 o'clock when a sleepy Gatesville justice performed the marriage ceremony for them and breakfast time when they arrived in Suffolk to ask for forgiveness.

CAPE HENRY PORT.

Government Will Condemn Land for Fortification.

Newport News, Va., Jan. 13.—Much interest is being taken in the real estate situation at Cape Henry, now that the government has not only determined to condemn the land required there, but has actually started the condemnation proceedings. A complete survey of the land has been made by Col. E. E. Winslow, and legal notice is being prepared by United States District Attorney D. L. Broner, to be sent to the owners of the land of the intention of the United States Government to condemn. The condemnation jury will be appointed by Judge Waddill and his jury will determine the price to be paid to the owners of the land for the property required for fortification purposes. The condemnation proceedings will include five pieces of property.

The largest section of land that will be condemned is that immediately adjoining section B, at Forty-first street. This starts just east of the Cape Henry Casino, including the two light houses and extending east and south for a mile, running back of the sand hills. The government will also condemn a small amount of water front in section A, in block 3. Further condemnation will be made by the government of the water front about one-half mile south of section A and it is supposed that this will be used by the government for a deep water landing. If this is done there will be a boulevard or highway constructed from the deep water landing through sections A and B to the government fortifications in section C.

BOOKKEEPER ARRESTED.

Robert G. Kelsey, Alias Michael Kavanaugh, Indicted in New York in 1908.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 13.—After being a fugitive from justice in New York City since 1908 Robert G. Kelsey, alias Michaeal Kavanaugh, 35 years old, employed as a bookkeeper by the Blue Ribbon Garage, was arrested this morning shortly before 1 o'clock by Detectives G. P. Smith and Bryant and Motorcycle Policeman Samuels. He was found at his home at Grove Avenue and Elm Sts., where he is said to have been living for nearly a year.

Kelsey is said to have been indicted in Brooklyn in 1908 for grand larceny, being charged wtih the theft of $9,700, said to have resulted from a real estate deal. He was released on bail according to Detective-Sergeant Roddy, of New York, who learned of his presence in this city, he jumped bond and since has been the object of a country-wide search.

He is said to have admitted to the officers that he was under indictment in Kings county, N. Y., but intended to fight every step for his return for trial.

BODY FOUND IN RIVER.

Negro Finds Maria Woods Choked to Death by Her Convict Husband.

Danville, Va., Jan. 13.—A hand protruding from the icy waters of the Dan river led to the discovery of the murdered body of a woman here Sunday. The discovery was made by Walter Norris, a negro, who was searching the stream for some signs of Maria Woods, who had disappeared on last Friday night, and who was supposed to have been the victim of foul play at the hands of her husband, George Woods, who had made his escape from the chain gang on last Friday afternoon.

The woman was at work in one of the local tobacco factories and was on her way home in company with other women when her husband accosted her on the north side of the city.

Upon the appearance of the man the other woman ran, but he seized his wife by the hands and dragged her into the woods near the roadside. This was the last seen of her alive, but her body, when it was found today, showed the marks of a struggle and finger prints were plainly visible on her throat. After the murder the man went to the home of his brother but on account of the fact that he was at the time a fugitive from justice, he was denied admission to the house.

The man was captured at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon, about four hours after the discovery of the body of his wife, and at the time of his arrest was in a negro shanty in the back yard of Constable Thomas, only a mile from the city limis and seemed to feel perfectly safe from apprehension though still but a short distance from the scene of his crime.

When he was brought to the courthouse and questioned he said that he had choked his wife to death, and had then put the body on his back and staggering under his gruesome burden had thrown the body in the river hoping that death would be attributed to drowning.

He did not seem to realize the gravity of his offense and attributed no motive for the crime.

Shoop is Acquitted.

Wise, Va., Jan. 13.—The jury in the case of the Commonwealth against Shoop, a white man of 22 years, for assault on the ten-year-old daughter of James Dingus, white, of Apalachia, returned a verdict of not guilty, after being out five minutes. Two eyewitnesses—Henry Hodge and his wife—to the alleged assault, testified, but the defense produced witnesses to impeach their evidence.
